

1 checks out each of the transactions that preceded the 2 one you are engaged in and finally determines that there
3 is a free and clear title, and so certifies.

4 Well now, the problem here is that if we 5 continue to mount Constitutional prerequisites it is going
6 to be virtually impossible for a conscientious attorney
7 or firm of attorneys, to certify that all of these things
8 have been met.

9 The vote on the business about the committees
10 is going to be extremely difficult thing to determine,
11 even though we have a very modern equipment and very modern 12 machinery to meet these tasks. Still and all, it is 13 going to be tremendously difficult, if not impossible, to 14 do.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: You have one-half minute, Delegate
16 Case.

17 DELEGATE CASE: I am wondering, therefore,
18 because I would hate to see the Constitution drawn in 19 such a way as to fix these elements as Constitutional 20 requirements for the certification and validity of the 21 law.
